WEATHER

January in Hyderabad brings cool and comfortable weather ranging from 16C to 28.6C. The climate is generally dry, with clear skies and mild temperatures ranging from cool mornings and evenings to warm afternoons. This pleasant and refreshing weather makes January an ideal time to explore the city's rich cultural heritage, enjoy outdoor activities, and visit popular attractions like RFC without the intense heat of summer. The tranquil atmosphere and crisp air enhance travel experiences, making it a favored month for tourists and locals alike.

SIGHTSEEING

DRESS CODE

Make Smart Casual the New Formal

The dress code for the delegates is casual.

We suggested that you pack light to medium-weight clothing. Since the weather is generally cool and pleasant, especially in the mornings and evenings, layering with a light sweater or jacket is advisable.

You may pack your comfortable linen polo shirts along with your trousers, but avoid packing T-shirts for the conference*

Images used are for illustrative purposes only.*

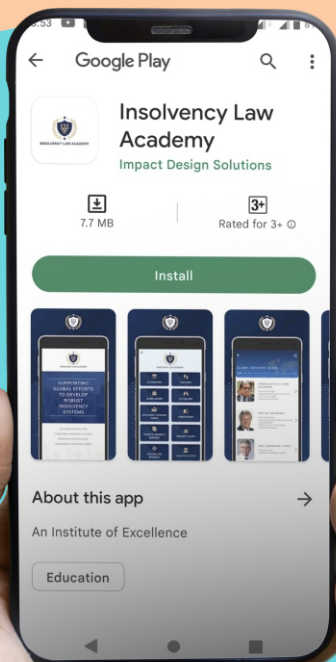

Natural fabrics like cotton and linen are comfortable during the warmer afternoons, while warmer clothes are useful for the cooler early mornings and nights. Speakers are advised to dress smart and sharp.

Avoid packing t-shirts for conference.*
